

You're invited to the Tristan's Quest Parent Education, Advocacy, and Support Group!

Date: Tuesday, January 29, 2008

Time: 6:30- 8:00 pm

Place: Tristan's Quest
115-A South Walnut Circle
Greensboro, NC 27409

Meeting Focus:

Choosing to Love, Laugh, and Live!

Presented by Dale Metz

Dale Metz served as Principal of Gateway Education Center in Greensboro for 23 years. He is currently Executive Director of an adult day health program called After Gateway. Dale is a requested speaker and travels the nation. He has been featured in Southern Living for his lifetime work with special needs children. Dale holds degrees in elementary education, special education, & educational administration.

You MUST call Tristan's Quest by 12 noon on Friday, January 25 if you will need child care!!

We believe that we have much to learn from each other and embrace this opportunity to grow in our parenting. We hope you will join us.

Tristan's Quest

(336) 547-7460